

Chattanooga Bicycle Club
Chattanooga Homebuilders Association Building
January 20, 2018
6:00 pm.

The annual Chattanooga Bicycle Club meeting was held on Saturday, January 20, 2018 at the Chattanooga Homebuilders Association's Century Club Banquet Room. Members and guests enjoyed a social hour and dinner, with food catered by Tony Davis, Owner/Operator of The Purple Daisy. CBC members also brought varieties of appetizers and desserts.

Chuck Puglisi, emceed, thoroughly enlightening, and entertaining the members on the 50th anniversary of the Chattanooga Bicycle Club. The Club was started on April 11, 1967. He presented a Chattanooga Times newspaper article promoting the first ride of the club.

Chuck recognized special guests Erik Hunt, Owens Cyclery and his wife Cammie. Also recognized for providing door prizes were Owens Cyclery, East Ridge Bicycles and Scotts Bicycles Centre of Cleveland. Other bicycle shops that were mentioned were Cycle Sports Concepts, Suck Creek Cycles and Trek Store.

Michelle Anderson and Mikki Blaes were the event Co-coordinators organizing the dinner, assisting with set up and providing decorations. The Setup Committee were Tom Jamison, Chuck Puglisi, Peggy Olson and Webb Tallon. Peggy Olson provided a slide show of photos featuring members on various club rides from the past year. Webb Tallon served as Beverage Chairman, and Door Greeters were Tom Jamison and Sharon Russell.

Mark Jacobs did a presentation of his experience in the Seattle to Portland (STP) bicycle event, in which he rode 204 miles in one day. This event was through the Cascade Bicycle Club with community involvement from various organizations in the greater Seattle and Portland areas.

Next, Chuck Puglisi facilitated a brief business meeting. Outgoing 2017 CBC officers were recognized and presented with CBC bucks. Proposed new 2018 CBC officers were presented. Nominations were opened on the floor. Motion to elect was made by Tom Jamison and seconded by Gray Fletcher. All members approved and voted to elect the new slate of officers.

CBC 2018 officers are:

President:	Mike Hartline
VPs (shared position):	Tim Blaes Joe Lodato Tony Perri
Secretary:	Michelle Anderson
Treasurer:	Sharon Russell
Event Director:	open
Road Ride Coordinator:	Peggy Olson
Membership Director:	open
Advocacy Director:	Phil Pugliese

Communications Director: Daisy Blanton
Social Director: open
At Large : Chuck Puglisi
At Large: Ben Keim
Social Media Directors: Mike Brown, Mikki Blaes

Sharon Russell, 2018 Treasurer, presented Lifetime membership awards to Daisy Blanton and Martin Penny for their years of service and dedication to the club.

Tom Jamison, 2017 Road Ride Coordinator, recognized 37 ride leaders that led over 370 rides. He provided the ride leaders with gift envelopes. George Perry was recognized as the Year-Round Ride Leader as he led a ride in every month of the year.

Mike Hartline, 2018 President made a brief presentation on his experience in the club and the future direction of the club. He requested members provide their feedback and input. He officially adjourned the meeting.

Door prizes winners were announced by Tom Jamison and Ella Keim (Ben Keim's daughter). Ella did a wonderful job announcing the members names.

Door prizes were provided by: Owens Cyclery, East Ridge Bicycles, Lorretta Lynn gift basket of essential oils, Slick's Burgers, Subway, The Terminal, Lupi's Pizza, AMC Movies, Gray Fletcher provided items from River City Bicycles, Eric and Michelle Anderson donated door prizes from the 2017 Tour de France mountain stage race and a jar of premium chamois butter. Other items distributed were water bottles from 3 State 3 Mountain, individual essential oil samples, Cliff blocks and shots.

Meeting ended at 9:00 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Michelle Anderson, Secretary